This took me weeks of research.

Yours in seconds.

Column 1: Entry Grades

Headline requirements plus subject-specific rules for each university.

^ the stuff buried in course pages

Column 2: Offer Rates

How competitive each course actually is, based on real UCAS data.

^ this changes everything

@EduStrategyCaroline

Column 3: Entry Ranges

The grades students actually held when they were accepted.

^ not the advertised grades

Column 4: Insights

Hidden catches and strategic notes I have added for each course.

^ the part you will not find anywhere else

One printable A4 page with all the data you need.
